

Home-School Agreement

To ensure that your child can enjoy school and be successful, there must be an effective partnership between pupils, parents and the school.

Hyde High School will:

- provide a safe, happy and caring learning environment;
- provide a high quality education for every child;
- encourage the highest standards of behaviour;
- keep you informed of progress in all aspects of school life through regular reports and Parents' Evenings;
- acknowledge and celebrate successes and achievements;
- encourage mutual respect and good manners;
- nurture and support each pupil's ambitions and aspirations;
- foster independence, responsibility and growth mindsets;
- challenge and support every pupil to be the best that they can be.

Mrs A Radcliffe (Headteacher)

As the parent/carer, you will understand that it is your responsibility to:

- ensure the punctuality and regular attendance of your child;
- ensure that your child comes to school in full school uniform;
- take an interest in your child's work, promoting reading wherever possible, and encouraging them to do their best;
- ensure that your child completes homework and provide a suitable environment in which they can work or encourage your child to attend homework club;
- encourage the highest standards of behaviour;
- support the school if the need for detention or other sanctions arises;
- ensure that your child has the correct equipment every day (minimum requirement: school bag, pen, pencil, ruler and planner);
- attend Parents' Evenings;
- encourage your child to participate in extra-curricular activities;
- log in to Go 4 Schools regularly to review your child's attendance, behaviour, progress and homework;
- support the school's policy that mobile phones should not be used during the school day;
- alert us to any concerns regarding your child;
- ensure the school is informed of up-to-date contact details at all times.

As the pupil, you will understand that it is your responsibility to be ready, respectful and safe by:

- arriving at school and at lessons on time and aiming for 100% attendance;
- wearing the correct uniform;
- being positive, taking pride in your work and always trying your best;
- speaking to everyone politely and showing good manners and respect;
- bringing all you need to learn;
- behaving well and following instructions without argument;
- taking responsibility for your own actions and accepting any sanctions;
- doing your homework to the best of your ability and handing it in on time;
- being tolerant of people who are different from you;
- being kind to others and speaking out about any bullying;
- following, without argument, the school policy that mobile phones should not be used during the school day;
- asking for help if you have a problem.
